

Same Lesley. New Bedford.

More than 100 years ago, our founder Edith Lesley blazed a trail for generations of leaders in the fields of education, mental health, human services, art and design, business, and more. Today, her legacy lives on through the 90,000 Lesley alumni making a difference here in Massachusetts and around the world.

Now we're joining forces with the New Bedford community to bring Lesley's respected bachelor's degree completion programs to the South Coast. Beginning in January 2019, you'll have the chance to enroll in evening and weekend courses taught by Lesley faculty at the DeMello International Center in downtown New Bedford.

Bachelor's Degree Programs

Beginning in 2019, Lesley University will begin offering the following bachelor's degree programs at the DeMello International Center in New Bedford. Anyone who lives or works in Bristol County is eligible to apply.

LIBERAL STUDIES

Courses offered online and on Thursday evenings
Starting in January 2019 / Now accepting applications

Complete your bachelor's degree through our most flexible pathway, ideal for adults with college credits looking to complete a bachelor's degree to move up professionally or on to graduate programs. You can choose from a number of online concentrations including psychology, business, human services, and graphic design that can be completed at your own pace while taking supplemental coursework at the DeMello Center.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

Courses offered online and on Saturdays
Starting in August 2019 / Accepting applications beginning in January 2019

Develop your skills in communication, innovative problem solving, and technology needed to work in dynamic and multicultural workplaces. Gain creative decision-making skills through data, research, and presentation. And, participate in internships that will give you the experience needed for employment in a variety of professional environments.

>>> Accelerate your education.

As an additional perk, you can earn your bachelor's and master's degrees in three years, depending on your transfer credits, through our accelerated master's degree program. By pursuing our accelerated BS/MSM option, you'll earn a BS in Business Management and an MS in Management, open doors to a wider range of career opportunities, and save time and money on graduate tuition.

Application Instructions

>>> Complete our free online application at:
